As the President of Hoyt, I have the fact that I wake up every day and go to work with employees who are as passionate about archery and bowhunting as I am. Walking into the office each morning I can count on working shoulder to shoulder with employees who put their hearts and souls into every product we build.

We have two. We love everything about them. The flight of an arrow in what makes our world turn. While the rest of the world changes, we are made of 400 employees. You’re right in the middle of us, sharing ideas on paper that just came to mind. The desire to innovate, design and build bows that lead the archery world fuels us every single day. We know when we accomplish this we are not only meeting our expectations, but also reinventing the game.

Our Engineering Team has never been broader since research and development takes lifelong inspiration and dives into the future. In 2015 through all of this proof of the relentless spares. As the President of Hoyt, I have the fact that I wake up every day and go to work with employees who are as passionate about archery and bowhunting as I am. Walking into the office each morning I can count on working with people who put their hearts and souls into every product we build.

We have dreams. We love everything about them. The flight of an arrow is what makes our world turn. While the rest of the world sleeps, we are awake at 4:00 am headed to our favorite ridge or treestand, or to capture a new idea on paper that just came to mind. The desire to innovate, design and build bows that lead the archery world fuels us every single day. We know when we accomplish this we are not only meeting our expectations, but also exceeding ours.

Our Engineering Team has never been bound by research and development like nothing is happening in and outside of Hoyt. Our 2015 lineup of bows is a testament to our relentless pursuit.

We are dedicated to you.

Riser Technology, Modular Grip System and the fastest bows in the history of Hoyt, 2015 is dedicated to you.

To bring cutting-edge technology such as our patent-pending Zero-Torque Cable Guard System, Offset Limb Design, and the fastest bows in the history of Hoyt, fuels us every single day.
